1. The Petition does not include the 2008 payment on the Moles Note. Objectors understand that the payment was received by Stanley Turner shortly before or after the decedent's death.

2. Objector's object to each distribution Stanley Turner, as Executor, made for his personal benefit without prior court review or approval. Objectors contend Stanley Turner should be surcharged the amount of such distributions.

Objections continued:

3. Objectors object to the Summary of Account, since it does not contain complete information, and falsely indicates the account is in balance. The Summary of Account does not contain information in Schedule E (Change in Assets) in the amount of $32,327.07
4. Objectors object to the Bank of America Service charges to December 2008, in the amount of $314.96. There is no explanation why such charges should be the responsibility of the Estate.
5. Objectors object to the 2009 tax penalties, the 2010 tax penalties and the 2011 tax penalties. Objectors allege that Stanley Turner did not have the income tax returns for the Estate prepared until 2011. Therefore, any tax penalties should be his sole responsibility.
6. Objectors object to the accounting fees for John Rich & Company. Objectors allege Stanley Turner unreasonably delayed in providing information to his accountants. Stanley Turner should be solely responsible for any and all additional charges for his accountants, and he should be surcharged for these amounts.
7. The Petition does not explain why the estate was not closed within one year for the date Letters were issued, nor does the Petition attempt to justify the delay. Objectors contend that the delay in bringing the Estate to a close was unjustified and unreasonable, and Stanley Turner should be surcharged.
8. Objectors object to the proposed distribution of the balance remaining on the Moles Note. The interest going to Stanley Turner should be reduced by the amount of surcharge, including a surcharge for the unreasonable delay in bringing this estate to a close.

Wherefore, the Objectors pray for an order as follows:

1. That the objections herein be sustained;
2. That the accounting not be settled and allowed as filed.
3. That Stanley Turner be ordered to render a true, correct and legally sufficient verified account.
4. That Stanley Turner be surcharged the amount of the 2008 Moles note payment he received.
5. That Stanley Turner be surcharged for the amount of the distribution he made without court review or approval to himself or for his benefit.
6. That Stanley Turner be ordered to repay the Estate the amount of the Bank of America surcharges to December 2008, or in the alternative Stanley Turner be surcharged this amount.
7. That Stanley turner be ordered to repay the Estate in the amount of the penalties and interest charged to the Estate for the 2009, 2010, and 2011 income tax returns, or in the alternative, that Stanley Turner be surcharged this amount.
8. That Stanley Turner be order to repay the estate the amount of the accounting fees paid to John Rich & Company, or in the alternative, that Stanley Turner be surcharged this amount.
9. That the share of the remaining Moles note payment to Stanley Turner be reduced in the amount of the surcharge assessed against him as requested above.
10. For attorney's fees for all objections.

Opposition to Termination of Guardianship filed by Guardians, Paul Pinegar and Vanessa Alvarado on 05/31/12

states that Petitioner, Jessica Navarro "Jessica", Bella's mother, has been indecisive about caring for Bella her entire life. Jessica initially was going to place Bella up for adoption and Bella lived with adoptive parents for the first month of her life (and has the adoptive parents last name), on the 28th day, Jessica changed her mind and took back custody of Bella. Jessica immediately placed Bella in the Petitioners care and she has remained with them ever since. When Bella was placed in their care, she had nothing other than the clothes she was wearing, Petitioners immediately purchased everything needed to care for an infant and they have raised her as their own ever since. Bella is now almost 3 years old. Jessica has continued to display indecisiveness regarding parenting Bella, and has also had trouble parenting her son from another relationship; last year, she sent her son to stay with her mother for several months because she could not afford day care and was frustrated because he refused to be fully potty trained at 5 years old. Jessica told the Guardians at that time, that she was glad Bella did not live with her so she did not have two children to send away. Jessica's statement in her petition that she has remained a primary parental figure in Bella's life and that Bella would spend at least 3 nights a week with her (sometimes a week at a time) is untrue; the longest Bella has been in Jessica's care was for 4 days, on one occasion in February 2012, during which time, Jessica sent Vanessa text messages that Bella missed her and wanted to see a picture of her. The Guardians further state that Jessica has claimed that Bella lives with her so that she can have daycare paid for for her son through a program called Supportive Services. Since Jessica has her son on Supportive Services, she is also required to have Bella on Supportive Services or she would not qualify for the program as her income is too high for a family size of only two. Jessica kept asking guardians for Bella's immunization records so that she could provide them to Supportive Services, the guardians refused to provide the records and as a result, Jessica had a doctor re-immunize Bella so that she could get an immunization record as required to continue receiving assistance from Supportive Services. Further, Jessica did not tell the guardians that she had done this. The guardians called Supportive Services and told them that their services were no longer necessary because they were Bella's guardians and Jessica did not have custody of Bella. Jessica has stated to the guardians that if she does not have Bella in her care, she will not qualify for daycare for her son. Jessica has never wanted to take complete responsibility for Bella and has always expressed that she wants to see Bella when she wants to see her. She has never been consistent with her visits and this is why there is no set visitation schedule. Jessica can't have it both ways, she cannot be a parent when she wants to be and when times get tough give up and hand Bella off to someone else. Bella needs consistency in her life, consistency that the guardians can provide. The guardians do not believe that a termination of the guardianship is in Bella's best interest. They believe that Bella needs consistency and are requesting that Jessica have a set visitation schedule; however, if Jessica misses a visit then all contact is terminated between Jessica and Bella. The guardians request that the Court deny Jessica's Petition to terminate the guardianship.

Petitioners state that guardianship of the estate is necessary because Alexander is 40% beneficiary of his mother's life insurance policy and is expected to receive approximately $20,000.00. Petitioners wish to place the life insurance proceeds into a blocked account and request that bond not be required. Petitioners further state that the minor is receiving social security and funds from Fresno County foster parent adoption program in the approximate amount of $1,500.00 and expect him to continue to receive these benefits.
